Loving our neighbors
through December

I CANNOT believe Christmas is here. The year has gone by so quickly I think I entered a time machine not too long ago. Thanksgiving is here and Christmas is steadily on its heels, and you can feel it. It won't be long before Christmas carols and decorations will be heard and seen everywhere, and not just at Hobby Lobby!

Christmas is such a special time of the year, especially for those of us who have asked Jesus to be our Lord and Savior. These are the days when the entire world is seeing a change in their surroundings and their thoughts go to others as to gifting and time with family. Such a special time for us to capture and acknowledge our God given purpose; to tell others about the Savior of the world. In December we are going to take a different look at the Christmas Story and the characters involved. Every one of them had a purpose, a specific purpose to play in the birth of Jesus, our Messiah; Zachariah, Mary, Joseph and the shepherds—each with their own task given by God. You and I are the same. Created in Christ Jesus to do the good works that He prepared beforehand that we would simply walk in them. That means that God has prepared a way for you to follow to do what He has laid out for you. When a team of horses is hitched to a wagon their driver hitched them for a purpose, and their driver is steering them to the place He wants to go. You and I, as followers of Jesus, have been hitched to God's wagon, He has a place He wants to drive us for a work He has to do. Join us this Christmas as we acknowledge the leadership of our Lord and the equipping of His Holy Spirit to accomplish that work.

Who has God put in your pathway to tell about Jesus this Christmas? He prepared this way just for you, for His glory and for their salvation. Join us as we "Go Tell It" everywhere that God sends us this Christmas.

Maybe you have never shared the gospel or your testimony with anyone, or maybe you have never done so with your family, or your kids or grandkids have never been with you. This is a great time to "Go Tell It" with your family, living out what we have been learning through Deuteronomy 6, our kids and grandkids not only being taught but catching what they see in us. We want to equip you with some tools to start those conversations so grab your "Go Tell It" box and go to your neighbors or coworkers, classmates or friends to start a "3 Circles" conversation with them.

Maybe this year, you will count how many people you told about Jesus more than you will the presents you received.

*We love y'all! Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas,
The Falanga's*

MEET THE Daycare Director

Janeen Davidson

Daycare Director

Janeen Davidson accepted the role of Director at Walnut Street Baptist Daycare during this past summer.

Some of you may have already known her from the past nine years as the lead teacher for the three-year-old Class. “I have been honored to spend my days with your child. The daily classroom experience has taught me valuable lessons to help lead and guide the staff to be loving and devoted caregivers.” Janeen said.

She was raised in Somerset, Wisconsin where she maintained and directed a church camp. “It was a wonderful childhood in which my parents encouraged us to love and serve Jesus with all we had. We worked together to understand the importance of loving Jesus and serving others.” After graduating high school, she continued her education at Northland Baptist Bible College.

Janeen earned her B.S. in Biblical Counseling and while in college she had many opportunities to serve and love others. In her final years of college, she accepted a job with Starbucks Coffee Co. and continued for 10 years working her way to District Manager trainee. Some of her favorite days were while serving coffee and developing relationships with her co-workers and customers.

She met her husband Darren In 2008, where they soon after married and moved to Jonesboro so that they could be closer to family. “We have been so blessed to enjoy time with family and live a simple Jesus-filled life. The opportunity to be placed in this role is a great honor, responsibility and privilege.” Janeen said. She hopes to continue having a Jesus-filled and loving daycare that will support you, your children, and the whole community.

The opportunity to be placed in this role is a great honor, responsibility and privilege.

Q: Any Prayer Requests?

A: Please pray for our staff to be gentle, loving and wise during each interaction with the children. Pray for the health and safety of our staff and children. Pray for our impact in the community and that we continue to be positive.

Q: How can we help?

A: The Walnut Street Daycare gladly accepts gently used toys, games, and books that are needing a new home. Monetary donations are accepted as well and are used to help replace items that need to be updated.

To contact Janeen Davidson regarding Walnut Street Day Care, please send an email to janeen@walnutstreetbaptist.org or call 972-6969 between the hours of 7 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

FROM THE KITCHEN OF
*Mrs.
Ginger
AND FRIENDS*

Mrs. Ginger Landreth and her kitchen crew keep our hearts and our stomachs full serving us each week! From scones on Sunday mornings to hashbrown casserole on Wednesday nights, there are several treasured recipes among their archives. As we get ready for the holiday season, we wanted to be able to share a few tried and true recipes with you. Hopefully these become favorites among your family, too!

Pecan Tarts

CRUST

INGREDIENTS

- | | |
|---------------------------|------------------------------|
| • 1 cup all-purpose flour | • $\frac{1}{4}$ cup + 3 Tbsp |
| • 3 oz. softened cream | softened butter |
| cheese | |

FILLING

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| • $\frac{3}{4}$ cup brown sugar | • 1 Tbsp softened butter |
| • $\frac{3}{4}$ cup chopped | • 1 tsp vanilla |
| pecans | • dash of salt |
| • 1 egg | |

DIRECTIONS

Preheat oven to 350° F. Mix together all crust ingredients. Shape into 24 balls. Chill. Place in greased 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ " tart pans. Shape into shells.

Combine filling ingredients. Spoon into tart shells until about $\frac{3}{4}$ full. Bake for 20 minutes.

Darrell's Texas Sheet Cake Cookies

COOKIES.....

- | | |
|----------------------------|--------------------|
| • 1 box chocolate cake mix | • 2 eggs (whisked) |
| | • ⅓ cup oil |

FROSTING.....

- | | |
|----------------|---------------------------|
| • ½ cup butter | • 3 tbsp milk |
| • 2 tbsp cocoa | • 2 ½ cups powdered sugar |

DIRECTIONS

Cookies:

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Combine cookie ingredients in large bowl and mix until completely incorporated. Dough will be thick. Scoop cookies onto a parchment lined cookie sheet, about a heaping tablespoon each. Bake for 7-8 minutes, remove from oven and let cool on cookie sheet for 4-5 minutes before moving to a cooling rack. Repeat until all of the dough is baked.

Frosting:

Combine the first 3 frosting ingredients in a small saucepan over medium heat and whisk until the mixture has melted. Remove from heat, add powdered sugar and whisk until smooth. Pour frosting over cookies. Be sure that each cookie is completely covered. Let frosting set and serve.

INTENTIONAL IDEAS Around Jonesboro

The holiday season, though full of hustle and bustle, is a perfect time to think about how to love your neighbor. Check out these ideas for being intentional as you go during this time of year.

CHRISTMAS PARADE | Make plans to attend the Jonesboro Christmas Parade! Grab a handful of invitations to the Christmas Eve Service to pass out while you're there.

GO TELL IT | Starting in December, grab a "Go Tell It" box from the foyer and participate with us as we reach our neighbors all month long. (More details on page 5.)

CHRISTMAS EVE AT WALNUT STREET | Did you know that Christmas Eve is the service that non-believers are most willing to attend? Think about who you can invite to join you and your family as we celebrate December 24th at 5:00pm in the sanctuary.

CHRISTMAS AT THE PARK | Spend an evening driving through Christmas at the Park set up at Joe Mack Campbell November 4th through January 1st. Invite a friend to enjoy a cup of hot chocolate and the display of over 400,000 lights.

FAMILY DECORATING | Turn a holiday tradition into a gospel opportunity for the whole family. While the tree goes up, tell the story of Jesus' birth and remember the reason for the season.

Below: On a recent vision trip, Josh Elliff showed Grey Falanga, Larry Turner, Keith Baker, and Sarah Seibert around the Loveland area.

A HEART FOR Loveland, Colorado

Nestled between the Rocky Mountains and the Midwest farmland is the town of Loveland, CO. A town of about 80,000 people and only an hour north of Denver, there's a very similar feel to Jonesboro, AR; except when you drive down the interstate you have a constant view of the Rockies. Wow! One would think that God's glory on display in such a profound way would point hearts and minds to their Creator. Unfortunately, though, much of this population simply does not know that the very thing they are enjoying daily is the glory of God. We, as followers of Christ, know the Creator of the mountains and the Creator of the 80,000 souls who are seeking a joy that only comes from a life restored to right relationship with Our Heavenly Father.

God has not forgotten Loveland, CO, though. He has called Josh and Jacqueline Elliff to plant River Church in this city, and they have responded in excited obedience. They made the big move in July 2021 and have spent the last several months learning the culture of Colorado, building relationships, establishing a "core team," and saturating the city in prayer.

Josh Elliff put it best when talking about their calling to the area:

"The burden for Colorado started with information, as we discovered it is an incredibly lost state. Many in the Denver and Northern Colorado areas consider Colorado a 'Pre-Christian' state, meaning the gospel has never had a strong presence in the state. This is changing, and we praise God for it. Our desire is to plant a multiplying church in partnership with Colorado Baptists, NAMB, and the SBC to see a culture changed by the gospel."

– Josh Elliff

Josh truly has a pastor's heart and desires to bridge the gap between the current culture and God's vision for The River Church, which happens through his willingness to meet the culture and people where they are. Thankfully the Elliffs are not alone in their desire to see Loveland reached. The Lord was faithful in calling two more families, the Smiths and Wheats, to join them in these efforts. Both families have also moved their lives to Loveland with the desire to see these 80,000 souls reached with the gospel of Christ.

The job is not small. There is only one evangelical church for every 32,000 people in Colorado, nine out of every ten people in Northern Colorado do not know Jesus, and Loveland's teen suicide rate is three times the national average. So while Coloradans live in arguably one of the most beautiful states, brokenness caused by sin has not escaped them; it is decimating them! Keith Baker said it best; "To be surrounded by the Rocky Mountains with the testimony of God's glory on display through his creation and yet having very little Christian witness in the area just shows the need for blind eyes to be opened to the gospel."

The good news is that God loves the people of Colorado, and just as the landscape of the Rockies draws people in from all over the world, we believe that God is drawing many to himself and is inviting Walnut Street to join Him. Yes, you and I have the opportunity to join God and the Elliffs in the exciting work happening in Northern Colorado! As a church, we have been fervently praying and asking God to open the door for long-term investment in North American Missions. Where does the Lord want us to invest our resources? Resources, not just financially, but also our time, our talents, our people, and whatever else the Lord asks of us.

This summer, the Lord graciously introduced us to Josh who shared his heart and, more importantly, God's heart for Loveland, CO. In September, Walnut Street sent four staff members on a vision trip to confirm whether this was, in fact, the next step for Walnut Street in North American Missions. As Brother Grey shared a few weeks ago - we are looking for how God is challenging us to tithe our members, to GO and let the gospel be on the tip of our tongues, excited to tell others. We were able to meet Josh's family and others who have given their lives to the advancement of God's kingdom in this area. We also noticed miles and miles of construction. This construction shows us that people are moving into Colorado by the thousands.

The Elliffs desire is to move into one of these up-and-coming communities from the start and begin investing in their neighbors from day one. God has specifically placed the community of Kinston on their hearts. Today, it is acres of dirt. But, Lord willing, in a year it will be full of homes and Uhauls belonging to the Elliffs and dozens of families moving into the neighborhood. The unique characteristic of Kinston is the builder's vision for community. All fences will be ranch-style, so you can see your neighbors when they are out in the yard, and there will be parks and walking paths to encourage families to get out of the house.

Right now, we can join the Elliffs in prayer for their current neighbors as they wait to move into Kinston and for their future neighbors in Kinston. Please ask God to prepare the hearts of those who will live in Kinston to hear the gospel and that His Name would spread from there to cover Loveland and all of Northern Colorado. Join us in praying for the Elliffs, the Smiths, and the Wheats, as they have moved their entire lives to serve the Lord in Loveland. Finally, please pray about how your family can join us in serving and supporting the work in Loveland.

THREE WAYS YOU CAN GO WITH LOVELAND

- 1. GIVE FINANCIALLY: Regular giving of your tithe, but also $10/week help us put Walnut Street families, College Students, and Youth on the field for ½ price!
- 2. TAKE A VACATION: Go see the Rockies. Rocky Mountain National Park is a short 45 minute drive from downtown Loveland, CO. Spend a couple days in Loveland, as you do in Jonesboro, meeting new people, having gospel conversations and encouraging the Elliffs. Then go see the parks!
- 3. GO TO LOVELAND: Maybe your job has become remote the last year and now you are able to work from anywhere and so you feel God leading you to join the Elliffs for a month or two or maybe longer ...

One stipulation ... they need our best in these early days ... our best givers, our best leaders, our best teachers, our best at sharing 3 circles, so train yourself and then join God as you go.

Sarah has been a member of Walnut Street since 2012. After spending two years overseas, she returned to Walnut Street's staff this year to serve as the Pipeline Residency Coordinator.

& MRS. JAMIE

Bibles for kids

For preschoolers:
The Jesus Storybook Bible

This is a great resource with colorful pictures that will grab the attention of little ones. Each story heading provides a corresponding Scripture reference for adults. While the Storybook Bible will tell stories through pictures, it's important to pull out a physical Bible with Old and New Testaments and share with your children that these stories are TRUTH - not make believe or fairytales.

For early elementary (K-3rd):
The International Children's Bible

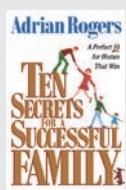

We all know there are many different versions of the Bible and some can be harder to understand than others. The ICB version is great for young readers because it is written on a 3rd-Grade reading level, and it is paraphrased when compared to a higher reading level version such as the NASB. The version shown here provides both text and pictures allowing children to use their imagination with what surroundings may have looked like during biblical times.

For upper elementary (4th-6th):
New International Version Kids' Visual Study Bible

As we grow in our walk with the Lord, we must challenge ourselves with a deeper understanding of who He is, His love for us, and our purpose is sharing Him and making disciples. The NIV Bible is written on a 7th-8th Grade reading level, provides text, pictures and "Did You Know?" statements.

TAKING THE NEXT Steps

Kathleen Griffin
Connections & Groups
Coordinator

The Next Steps class covers an array of topics varying from your testimony to What We Believe. We will walk through your spiritual gifts and overview of church life, as well as answer any questions you may have about the church or theology.

Walnut Street believes in the Bible - we believe that the Bible is the Word of God without error, the sole authority for life and faith. 2 Timothy 3:16 "All scripture is given by inspiration of God is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction of the righteousness."

Walnut Street believes in God - we believe there is one God who exists in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. 1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these are three in one." In class we will cover in detail what we believe in regards to salvation by faith alone, baptism by immersion, eternal life, prayer, and much more.

The Next Steps class is led by Jerry Parker and Zack Brown. The class meets on the second Sunday of each month at 9:00am in room 122. Any greeter should be able to point you in the right direction if you aren't sure where to go. Join us December 12th!

Connections Lunch

On the first Sunday of every month, we have Connections Lunch in the Gym immediately following the 11:00am service. You are more than welcome to join us, no RSVP needed. It's a great opportunity to meet staff members, leaders, and hear an overview of what we're all about. You'll also hear about how to connect to a class, a group, or a place to serve!
